Rules of the First Pleyel International Chopin Piano Competition in Nohant

I

The First International Chopin Pleyel Piano Competition in Nohant (hereinafter referred to as the Competition), organized by the Association Chopin Pleyel (hereinafter referred to as the Association), will be held in Nohant from August 15 to 23, 2026.

II

The Competition is open to any pianist representing a professional level of performance, born between 1996 and 2010 and meeting the requirements described below.

III

Candidates wishing to take part in the Competition must submit the required application documents by the deadline indicated below (see § IV).

IV

The application must include:

- A. Application form available on the Competition website, duly completed on the website,
- B. A short biographical note (no more than half an A4 page - about 1000 characters),
- C. Photocopy of an official document with photo showing date of birth,
- D. Three current, royalty-free photographs, including at least one portrait, for use in Competition publications (electronic version 300-1200 dpi; accepted formats - .jpg, .bmp, .tif),
- E. Photocopies of certificates of musical studies and main competition results,
- F. Documents attesting to the candidate's major artistic activities over the past three years,
- G. Two letters of recommendation in support of the candidate's application to the Competition, provided by prominent pedagogues or musical personalities,
- H. A link to a video recording of the following repertoire, recorded in its entirety and uncut and submitted in a single file (no larger than 4 GB), at least in HD quality (accepted formats - .mp4, .mov):
 - 1) Johann Sebastian Bach: a 4-part Fugue from the Well-Tempered Clavier
 - 2) Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart: 1st movement of a Sonata of your choice (except Sonatas K. 282, K. 331)
 - 3) Frédéric Chopin :

- One etude of your choice with the exception of the following: Op. 10 No. 3, Op. 10 No. 6, Op. 10 No. 9, and Op. 25 No. 1, Op. 25 No. 2, Op. 25 No. 3, Op. 25 No. 7, Op. 25 No. 8, Op. 25 No. 9 and the 3 posthumous etudes.
- The finale of one of the two concertos (Op. 11 or Op. 21) with second piano accompaniment

The video image must show the pianist's hands playing and the right-hand side of his or her entire silhouette, filmed horizontally with a single camera, without cuts during the performance of the entire program. Volume control during recording is not permitted. All pieces must be recorded in the same place and at the same time.

A. Payment via the website or proof of payment of the application fee of 100 euros (net) into the Association's account, which will be communicated when registration opens (June 1).

The candidate's name and the purpose of payment must be indicated.

The application and all correspondence relating to participation in the competition must be in French or English, or translated into one of these languages. Failure to meet the above requirements or to provide complete information may result in rejection of the application.

The application must be completed and submitted to the Association using the electronic form available on the Competition website.

Applications must be submitted to the Association no later than October 17, 2025 (if sent by post, the postmark deadline is October 17, 2025). On receipt of a complete application, the Association will confirm its acceptance. The submission of the candidate's application to the Competition shall constitute acceptance of these regulations by the candidate. Notification of acceptance of the candidate's application shall signify that an agreement has been reached between the Association and the candidate concerning all matters provided for in these rules.

V

The candidate's documents and records, specified in § IV paragraph H, will be evaluated by the qualification committee. The Competition Director will appoint the members of the qualification committee.

A specific pre-selection reserved for candidates domiciled in mainland China will take place face-to-face between the end of October and the beginning of November 2025 under the responsibility of Pleyel China, which will be in charge of organizing them.

- A maximum of 10 candidates will be selected at these auditions by a qualifying committee chaired by the Competition Director.

- the first 3 will be automatically admitted to compete in August 2026, and therefore exempt from the video pre-selection with candidates from the rest of the world.

- the remaining 7 will be allowed to take part in the video pre-selection tests common to all candidates.

- no candidate residing in mainland China will be able to participate directly in the video pre-selections without going through the physical pre-selection organized by Pleyel China.

In total, the Committee will select 24 candidates to take part in the competition, which will be held in Nohant from August 15, 2026. The two candidates who came 25th and 26th in the pre-selection rounds will remain on the waiting list until June 30, 2026.

The list of candidates selected for the preliminary round will be made public at the launch concert of the 60th Nohant Festival Chopin at the Salle Cortot, in March 2026, and by an announcement published on the Competition website no later than the same day.

VI

The order of performance of the participants in the Competition will be drawn publicly on August 15, 2026.

Depending on the order of performance, each participant will be given a time slot in which to rehearse on the competition piano. As the Competition begins on the morning of August 16, participants must arrive at the Competition venue by the afternoon of August 15, 2026 at the latest.

The Competition Director reserves the right to alter the schedule of one-day performances for organizational or program-related reasons. In the event of a competitor's illness, confirmed by the Competition's medical service, he or she may be authorized to perform outside the established sequence, at the end of the current event.

VII

Participants in the competition are responsible for their own travel expenses.

The association will only be responsible for local transfers between residences, rehearsal spaces and the competition venue.

The association will offer advantageous accommodation options for candidates, who will however be responsible for paying their own accommodation costs, as well as those of any accompanying persons.

VIII

The Association will make practice pianos available to all candidates.

Finalists will rehearse with the orchestra.

The Association will not assist Competition participants in obtaining French visas. On request, the Competition Office will provide a note confirming the admission of participants to the Competition and the advantages mentioned above.

Competition participants must have health insurance cover for the duration of their stay in France in order to take part in the Competition.

IX

The competition performances will be open to the public and will take place over two rounds and a final, itself comprising two different rounds on two consecutive days: one in recital, the other with orchestra.

At the end of the first eliminatory round, 12 participants will be selected for the second round, then 6 for the Final.

X

The Competition repertoire to be played during the rounds to be held in Nohant includes only works by Frédéric Chopin. The works chosen by the candidates may not be played twice during the competition, even if they appear in two different rounds.
